Algeria, Angola, Barbados, Fiji, Grenada, Haiti, Lesotho, Mozambique, Namibia, Nigeria, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, South Africa, Timor-Leste, Uganda, United Republic of Tanzania, Zambia, Zimbabwe: draft resolution

Question of Western Sahara

The General Assembly,

Having considered in depth the question of Western Sahara,

Reaffirming the inalienable right of all peoples to self-determination and independence, in accordance with the principles set forth in the Charter of the United Nations and General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960 containing the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples,

Recalling its resolution 57/135 of 11 December 2002,

Recalling also all resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council on the question of Western Sahara,

Recalling further Security Council resolutions 658 (1990) and 690 (1991) by which the Security Council approved the settlement plan[1] for Western Sahara,

Recalling Security Council resolution 1359 (2001) as well as resolution 1429 (2002) and resolution 1495 (2003), in which the Council expressed its strong support of the Peace plan for self-determination of the people of Western Sahara,[2]

Reaffirming the responsibility of the United Nations towards the people of Western Sahara,

[1] See S/21360 and S/22464 and Corr.1.

Noting with satisfaction the entry into force of the ceasefire in accordance with the proposal made by the Secretary-General,[3] and stressing the importance it attaches to the maintenance of the ceasefire as an integral part of the settlement plan,

Underlining, in this regard, the validity of the settlement plan,[1] while noting the fundamental differences between the parties in its implementation,

Stressing that the lack of progress in the settlement of the dispute on Western Sahara continues to cause suffering to the people of Western Sahara, remains a source of potential instability in the region and obstructs the economic development of the Maghreb region and that, in view of this, the search for a political solution is critically needed,

Welcoming the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Personal Envoy in search of a mutually acceptable political solution, which will provide for self-determination of the people of Western Sahara,

Having examined the relevant chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples,[4]

Having also examined the report of the Secretary-General,[3]

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;[3]

2. Commends the Secretary-General and his Personal Envoy for their outstanding efforts and the two parties for the spirit of cooperation they have shown in the support they provide for those efforts;

3. Continues to support strongly the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Personal Envoy and similarly support their Peace plan for self-determination of the people of Western Sahara[2] as an optimum political solution on the basis of agreement between the two parties;

4. Calls upon the parties to work with the United Nations and with each other towards acceptance and implementation of the Peace plan;[2]

5. Also calls upon all the parties and the States of the region to cooperate fully with the Secretary-General and his Personal Envoy;

6. Reaffirms the responsibility of the United Nations towards the people of Western Sahara;

7. Takes note of the relevant resolutions of the Security Council, including resolution 1349 (2001); resolution 1359 (2001); resolution 1429 (2002); and resolution 1495 (2003);

8. Calls upon the parties to cooperate with the International Committee of the Red Cross in its efforts to solve the problem of the fate of the people unaccounted for, and calls on the parties to abide by their obligations under international humanitarian law to release without further delay all those held since the start of the conflict;
